Objective for Each Session

Enter workshop objective. Specify the program level (basic, intermediate, advanced, update or overview). In last sentence of the objective, identify prerequisites for intermediate, advanced or update. For basic or overview only, state “No prerequisites or advanced preparation is necessary.”

An example of a good performance objective is defined as “Specifications on what participants should accomplish in a learning activity period. Learning objectives are useful to program developers in deciding appropriate instructional methods in allocating time to various subjects”.
After completing this course you will be able to:

- Differentiate between the three basic levels in an organization
- List the six types of strategic plans
- Associate each strategic plan with the appropriate organization level
- Define the four steps in the organization strategic planning process
- Apply the strategic planning process to create product marketing plan
